Population Estimates for Parliamentary Constituencies in Birmingham, 2001 & 2009

Parliamentary Constituencies

Westminster parliamentary constituencies are the areas used to elect Members of Parliament (MPs) to the House of Commons, which is the primary legislative chamber of the UK and is located in Westminster, London. There are currently 650 constituencies in the UK, 533 in England, 40 in Wales. 59 in Scotland and 18 in Northern Ireland. The Parliamentary Constituencies shown are based on the boundaries that came into effect at the General Election in May 2010.

Population estimates for the Scottish Westminster parliamentary constituencies can be found here:

Notes

1. These figures are consistent with both the published revised local authority population estimates (May 2010), and the published revised Lower Layer Super Output Area estimates (September 2010).
2. Whilst the estimates are produced down to unit level, it is not implied that the estimates are accurate to this level of detail. In addition there are limitations with the administrative data sources used to produce these estimates which may impact on the quality of the estimates.
3. These estimates are experimental statistics and do not yet meet the quality standards of National Statistics. Feedback over the quality of these estimates is welcome (see contact details below).
