APMG-International CHAMPS2 Certification

CHAMPS2 was originally developed by Birmingham City Council and its partners to assure success in the Council's £2 billion transformation programme. Now, this proven business change method is made freely available to organizations in the public and private sectors.

CHAMPS2 is a vision led, benefits-driven business change method which is broad in scope and encompasses the whole business change journey. It helps define the organization's strategic needs and provides a tailored journey to ensure the achievement of desired outcomes.

What can CHAMPS2 do for you?

CHAMPS2 reduces risk and cost by providing clear guidance, tools and techniques. It enables the achievement of a high standard of programme delivery through a quality management framework integrated within the method. It provides a common language for programme teams and stakeholders across all change initiatives. CHAMPS2 is tailorable so it can fit all sizes of projects or programmes. It gives leadership control through a comprehensive gateway process. If you and your organization need to build internal change management capability then CHAMPS2 is designed to help.
