Title	Consultation and Interviews for Service Director - Children, Young People and Families
Overview	Young People from Voice is Power (Youth Parliament) and the Children in Care Council attended a training workshop to introduce them to interviewing techniques, explore the role of the Sevice Director and ascertain what characteristics they would like the appointed post holder to bring to the role. Young people formed a youth panel in which they set questions for interview, were supported in interviewing applicants and were able to input their views and make recommendations as to which applicant should be appointed.
